

I am strongly opposed to your efforts to weaken the current broadcast regulations. The planned changes will result in further consolidation of media ownership into the hands of a smaller number of firms. This does not server the public interest.

On June 2, vote to preserve the current regulations.